

Mike Stone - Covid Hoax Pushers (including Trump) Want You Dead

July 28, 2022

"People think war consists of tanks rolling down the street and it does. But there are other kinds of war, such as the kind taking place right now."

"The bottom line is the hoax pushers want you dead. Yes, you. And if you're white then they not only want you dead, they want your children dead and your children's children dead. They want to wipe out your seed, your entire race.

The Not-So-Invisible War

by Mike Stone
(henrymakow.com)

I get strange looks from people when I tell them we are at war.

Looks ranging from the fluoride stare to looks of outright hostility. The former have no idea what I'm talking about. The latter know exactly what I'm talking about, but they don't want to hear it. They have more important things to think about. You know, like playing the slots at Las Vegas, logging on to Porn Hub, or watching the parade at Disneyland.

(Masked morons - Tell em "There is no Creator" - no problem. Say, there is no pandemic, they go nuts.)

People think war consists of tanks rolling down the street and it does. But there are other kinds of war, such as the kind taking place right now.

How are the bombings of Nagasaki and Hiroshima different from the mass murder by injection that we're seeing today? How are the fire bombings of Dresden any different? Those bombings specifically targeted innocent civilians and children. Today's injections are doing the same.

How are the internment camps we saw in World War II different from the internment camps we see today in Australia and the camps that were/are planned for Canada and the United States? In both cases, people are forced against their will into camps and locked up.

How is the persecution of those who protested and resisted World War II - bank accounts seized, property confiscated, sedition charges - different from the persecution of the Canadian truckers or anyone else today who dares to question the war taking place in front of their own eyes?

How is the Communist overthrow of Vietnam or the Communist overthrow of Russia different from the Communist overthrow of the United States? Vietnam was an outright war. The Communist takeover of Russia is described as a revolution, but that was a bloody war too. Isn't the overthrow of a country's government, like the one we experienced in November of 2020, an act of war?

You could say that the bombing victims of World War II didn't choose to die in the same way that today's victims have done. That would be partially true of today's adult victims. I say "partially" because today's adult victims didn't choose to die. They actually thought they were doing the right thing by taking the jab. I don't agree with those who say that everyone who was dumb enough to take the jab deserves to die. Stupidity shouldn't be punishable by death.

And that argument most certainly does not apply to the millions of children and teenagers who have been maimed and murdered the last two years. They didn't choose death by injection. They were force-jabbed by their parents, "doctors," and school officials. They are innocent victims.

Remember, too, that thousands of early deaths in this war took place in nursing homes where the victims were drugged and involuntarily murdered. They were also innocent victims.

And what about the tens of thousands - possibly hundreds of thousands - of miscarriages?

WAR? WHAT WAR?

There are millions of retards on the left who have no idea what I'm talking about. They bought into the virus hoax from day one. They were the ones you saw back in March of 2020 stampeding grocery stores, fighting over toilet paper, and calling the police every time they heard their neighbor sneeze.

Today those same retards - the ones still alive - are double-jabbed, double-boosted, and still wearing face masks ... in their car ... with the windows rolled up. Soon they'll be lining up for their monkeypox shots. Like country rubes at the poker table, they have no idea they're being fleeced; no idea they're being systematically targeted for death and destruction.

And there are millions of retards on the right who suspect something fishy is going on, but they have been duped into believing the hoax is actually a Chinese bio-weapon; an actual virus unleashed by the Chinese Communist Party. The virus hoax is being pushed by commies, all right - but they're not Chinese.

The bottom line is the hoax pushers want you dead. Yes, you. And if you're white then they not only want you dead, they want your children dead and your children's children dead. They want to wipe out your seed, your entire race.

Yet everyone I see today is acting as if everything is back to normal. Every girl I see has her nose in her cell phone, checking her social media "likes" and comparing them to how many "likes" others have received. Every guy I see has his nose in his cell phone, playing video games or watching porn. A few watch sports ball.

Nobody seems to know or care that we are at war. Bring it to their attention and if you're able to get through their fluoride stare, they'll shrug and say there's nothing they can do about it.

Untrue.

The way to end this war, the way to end all wars, is easy as pie: economic boycott.

THE LEFT KNOWS ALL ABOUT BOYCOTTS

Boycotts are the most efficient way to end any conflict. Look at the Civil Rights movement of the 1960s. It succeeded because of boycotts. Look at how companies and corporations are bullied and forced to follow the party line by the mere threat of a boycott. What is cancel culture other than a boycott of an individual or company?

I've been encouraging people to boycott those who want to kill them (<https://www.henrymakow.com/2017/11/boycott-racist-illuminati%20.html>) for quite some time.

If, two years ago when the hoax first began, people had simply stopped flying, stopped financially supporting every airline, every company, and every corporation that was pushing the hoax, everything would have gone back to normal within weeks.

That strategy would still work today. But of course it's never going to happen, because people, for lack of a better word, are pussies. They are unwilling to undergo the slightest discomfort even in a time of war.

So society marches on. In the dark. On the road to destruction.

SPELLBOUND AND ON THE WAY TO HELL

I see good people doing good work, trying to educate the masses. I applaud them, but I hold no hope that the masses will suddenly wake up one day and realize what's going on.

Can this decline and fall of the human race be blamed entirely on stupidity? Or is there something else going on?

The people behind our current war and every other war, those at the very tippy-top, are practitioners of the dark arts. It's very possible that they have the mass of humanity under some kind of satanic spell; a spell that has entrapped everyone who lacks a moral foundation. That seems a more logical explanation than "people are stupid."

Consider your own friends and family members. Are they stupid, or is it more likely that they are under a witch's spell?
